Sheri Lewis Wohl has given readers a fascinating cast of characters: Spokane County Medical Examiner Riah Preston who is a five-hundred-year-old vampire; Coroner Ivy Hernandez; genetic scientist Adriana James; and Colin Jamison, a vampire hunter for the Vatican...Wohl tells her story with humor and includes many interesting "facts" about vampires...

...Crimson Vengeance is a very different paranormal novel, which had me reflecting on both the characters and the story, and poses ethical questions about the nature of vampires. The setting, in North Eastern Washington state, allows for both rural and urban action. This is an exciting page turner which will stay with the reader after the last page is turned.
